and could be his real name. Possibly equates with Name No. 16. See MOSCOW's No. 478 of 19th March, 1943
(3/NBF/T1 596) which also deals with certificates[AKTY]
and which is signed by Name No. 16.

[iii] PATON : Unidentified.

[iv] KENT : Possibly Nikolaj Alekseevich SKRYAGIN, Assistant
Naval Attaché in WASHINGTON.[v] MAXWELL : Possibly Jack Bradley FAHY, an employee of the U.S.
Department of the Interior before going into the Army in April 1943.[vi] JIM : Georgij Stepanovich PASKO, Secretary to the Soviet Naval Attaché in WASHINGTON.[vii] PINK : Possibly Capt. Pavel Arkhipovich PALTSEVYJ, a Soviet Naval engineer.[viii] Name No. 91 : Capt. (1st Rank) I. A. EGORICHEV, Soviet Naval Attaché in WASHINGTON.
